Commercial Driver's License Permit Prep Course

ROCE 9101

Course Length: 15 Hours

CEUs Awarded: 1.5 CEUs

Overview:

This course is designed to assist prospective commercial drivers prepare for the written portion of the licensing exam. Emphasis is placed on understanding terminology used in the trucking industry. Your first step toward acquiring a Commercial Driver's license begins with an understanding of the testing process. This course helps you understand the testing process and provides practice in taking the written exam.

Target Audience:

This course is designed for anyone who would like to obtain a Commercial Driver's license of any class. It is solid preparation for prospective drivers located in all states across the country.

Career Outlook and Benefits:

Median annual salary for heavy and tractor trailer truck drivers is $37,730 according to the US Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics. Job opportunities should be favorable for truck drivers, especially long-haul drivers. In addition to occupational growth, numerous job openings will occur as experienced drivers leave the occupation to transfer to other fields of work, retire or exit the labor force. As workers leave these jobs, employers work hard to recruit experienced drivers from other companies. As a result, there may be competition for the jobs with the highest earnings and most favorable work schedules. Jobs with local carriers are often more competitive than those with long-distance carriers because of the more desirable working conditions of local carriers.

Hardware & Software Requirements:

You will need the following:

- Computer with Internet access
- Ability to use Microsoft Word '98 version or higher
