HOMELAND SECURITY/EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT: ROCE 8501

Course Length: 2 hours, self-paced

CEUs Awarded: 0.2 CEUs

Endorsements: Satisfies Tennessee POST (Police Officer Standards Training) in-service requirements.

Overview:

This course addresses law enforcement's need to understand Homeland Security/Emergency Management practices and procedures. The understanding of Homeland Security/Emergency Management practices and procedures is essential to multi-agency cooperation during emergencies. While law enforcement agencies of all sizes can benefit from this course, it is especially important for small- to medium-size agencies where effective response to a significant disaster event requires mutual aid and cooperation across many agencies. The emphasis of this course is on providing law enforcement officials with an understanding of their role in the disaster response process.

Target Audience:

This course is designed for any Tennessee Law Enforcement Officer who must attend annual in-service training. While many law enforcement officers have received very specific training in this area, law enforcement personnel need an overall view of Homeland Security/Emergency Management and how local law enforcement is an integral part of the process.

Career Outlook and Benefits:

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Tennessee Department of Labor, the median income for first-line supervisors/managers of police and detectives is $53,420. A large number of Tennessee law enforcement officers work for small- to medium-size agencies. Within these agencies, devoting a week to in-service training where each officer is taken away from his normal duties causes significant problems in maintaining staffing levels, budgets, and in general, providing adequate public safety to the citizens of Tennessee.

The delivery of in-service training via Regents Online Continuing Education assists law enforcement administrators in fulfilling their duty to the public, while providing the individual officer with quality training that meets state mandated training requirements. This course is a 2-hour component of a 32-hour in-service online self-directed program for law enforcement officers in the state of Tennessee. The course can be taken independently or as part of an approved curriculum to satisfy Tennessee POST (Police Officer Standards Training) in-service requirements.
